

TOOL 29 | Conflict Map

Learning Objective	The conflict map is an excellent way to clearly visualise diffuse conflicts. The main objective is to show the relationships between actors (similar to a stakeholder or actors map of Capacity WORKS (GIZ)) Participants will understand why other conflicts may often arise or other power interests exist in addition to HMCCC conflicts. Often there are several aspects that interact in a conflict in the field of HMCCC
Learning Outcome	After use of the tool, participants will <ul style="list-style-type: none">▶ understand:<ul style="list-style-type: none">▶ that some conflicts are easy to identify, others are more difficult▶ the fact that all parties involved have a different perception of the situation▶ be able to:<ul style="list-style-type: none">▶ draw a common picture of the conflict(s), - and ideally also to gain ideas for conflict resolution
